

National Integrity Building Action Plan

IV. Specific Actions

Specific Strategy	Enforcement Measure	Performance Goal	Executing Agency
3. Continue indicator research and take the pulse of public opinion as well as international trends.	(1) Create an online platform for public policy participation to provide a permanent channel for all people to participate in public affairs. The goal is to encourage the public to raise public policy issues proactively or government agencies actively solicit public opinions on policy projects or plans and promote transparent governance.	Report the number of visitors to the "Public Policy Online Participation Platform" annually.	The National Development Council
	(2) Conduct research on the trends in international integrity ratings and understand the appraisal of the international community and potential assessors various international indicators regarding the level of integrity in Taiwan.	1. Every year the Agency Against Corruption, Ministry of Justice is to plan related integrity practices aimed at weaknesses shown in international ratings. 2. In response to the biennial global, national defense assessment conducted by the Transparency International, the Ministry of National Defense is to prepare for the "Government Defence Anti-	The Ministry of Justice (Agency Against Corruption) and the Ministry of National Defense

		Corruption Index” every year.
	(3) Conduct public opinion surveys, carrying out long-term observation and study of ongoing trends through public perceptions of government integrity, to learn about the changes in Taiwan’s corruption situation in recent years and to further draw up strategies to urge anti-corruption efforts in the private sector to increase the transparency of public integrity.	Every year conduct a public opinion survey on government integrity and release the results.	The Ministry of Justice (Agency Against Corruption)