

Subject :

In the matter of the query of violation of Article 9 of the Act on Recusal of Public Servants Due to Conflicts of Interest.

Description :

The violation of Article 9 of the Act on Recusal of Public Servants Due to Conflicts of Interest in the aspect of the act of transaction failing to govern if the contracts or agreements are being annulled in which case the Civil Code shall come into force. If the contracts or agreements concerned could not be determined as null, it is still inappropriate to jump to the conclusion that the content of the contracts or agreements shall be nullified because of the contradiction to public order or good customs.
