

Subject :

The query of the necessity of the declarant in making regular property declaration during the year if assigned to a different position or resigned in the declaration period.

Description :

In principle, the Act on Property-Declaration by Public Servants requires declaration once annually. In addition, there is also the exception that allows for choosing declaration either at the time of assuming of (reporting for) duties or relief from (discharge from) office.

Civil servants should declare property even through agency service, the declarant is only required to declare e property by nature of agency and the period is limited to 3 months and it is not necessary to designate the declaration day. If the appointment of agent is discharged in the declaration period, choose one of the modes for performing the obligation of declaration. If there is also an appointment for making other declarations with other entities (institution's) for processing declaration, it will not be necessary to for declaration forthe discharge of the appointment of the agent.
