

Subject :

About whether or not the declarant's hospitalization may serve as the reason justifying the failure to complete the declaration in a timely manner

Description :

If the declarant takes the "leave with full pay" pursuant to the laws to continue education or study overseas, or the "retain the position without pay" due to military service and parental leave pursuant to laws, or is hospitalized due to illness and thereby it is impossible for him/her to return to the country or resume his/her post prior to expiration of the due date for declaration, he/she shall be considered unable to perform his/her duty actually. Said circumstances may serve as the reason justifying his/her failure to complete the declaration in a timely manner pursuant to laws and he/she may complete the declaration timely in the year when he/she resumes his/her post.
