

Subject :

About disputes over whether or not the applicant for access to the property declaration information by public servants who make the information who accessed it available to another person shall be held violating Paragraph 3, Article 13 of the Regulations Governing Review and Inspection of the Materials of the Property Declaration by Public Servants

Description :

The applicant's supplying a declarant's property information to a third party as the basis for the third party's claim against the declarant's misrepresented property declaration shall not be held as constituting an unfair use.