2019 Training Course on Ethics Campus Propaganda Series in Taipei Debut of YA LJB – Raise Your Hands If You See Anything Unusual

“Training Course on Ethics Campus Propaganda Series” coming into Taipei today (29th Day), worked with the “Kid Ethics Month Event” of Taipei City Government. YA LJB made their debut on the big screen and told 150 kindergarten students on the site through their 3D animation that “Raise Your Hands if You See Anything Unusual (be brave to blow the whistle)!”

To respond to and practice the anti-corruption education initiative advocated by the preventive measures under the United Nations Convention against Corruption, and to enable outsiders to have the picture on the hard work and determination of the Agency Against Corruption, Ministry of Justice in continuous furtherance of the training course on ethics, the Agency planned the “Training Course on Ethics Campus Propaganda Series” in 2019, and chose to stop at 8 major locations throughout Taiwan. The series of events have already taken place in New Taipei City, Taoyuan City, Taichung City and Penghu

County. On the 29th day, the event was organized in Taipei City Hall, which invited Taipei City Government and students from the kindergartens nearby to attend the premiere of “Kid Ethics Month Event” playing the 3D animation titled “YA LJB League-Raise Your Hands If You See Anything Unusual (be brave to blow the whistle)” co-produced by Taipei City Government and us. In the meantime, Taipei City Mayor, Mr. Ke, Wen-Je, and Director-General Cheng of the Agency kicked off the event jointly.

YA LJB not only played the important roles at the stage in the opening show but also acted as the leading roles in the 3D animation. The event focused on kindergarten students. At the end of the animation premiere, we had the kindergarten principal interact with the students for immediate teaching to enable these young students to have in-depth knowledge about the plot portrayed in the animation. Meanwhile, with the aid from teachers and staff, certain reality games designed to help these students learn by the ethics offices from ten government entities, including Taipei City Government and Ministry of Economic Affairs, Ministry of Finance, Ministry of Transportation and Communications, Council of Agriculture (Executive Yuan), New Taipei City Government, Taoyuan City Government, Taichung City Government, Keelung City Government, and Taitung County Government could better communicate the educational objectives about ethics and being non-greedy.

Next, the “Training Course on Ethics Campus Propaganda Series” will make its debut in Taitung County Stadium on September 11. Then, the LJB balloon “T-Bao” Doll will lead the students to speak out aloud the vocabularies related to integrity, such as justice, fairness, honesty and not bring greedy, in their ethnic languages to demonstrate their self-confidence and energy for integrity and ethics. We sincerely invite you to join us to work on the training course on ethics for our next generation.
