

Results of early warning work, reassurance of prevention of corruption and special audit programs in 2020:

I. Further effort in early warning

Agency Against Corruption(AAC) has been leading all ethics offices in Taiwan, whose effort has been effectively exerted in the early warning of corruption for the prevention of possible administrative malpractice cases and for the reduction of the corruption risks. In 2020, there were 305 cases of early warning and the statistics of the results (2020) are shown in the table below.

Statistics on the Results of prevention of corruption

Item		Cases (amount)
Number of cases	Reported by the ethics offices	305

	Proposal of preventive measures	482

III. Proper pursuit of risk assessment through special audits

- (I) AAC advocated for integrity risk assessment among ethics offices at all levels.

It built up the risk database, and took preliminary measures for reducing risks through the rotation of duties, supervision by the function chief and intensified evaluation of personnel exposed to integrity risks. In addition, special audits were conducted to keep track of the details pertinent to the risks for policy recommendations. The key audit matters for corrective action were tracked by the integrity report meeting to vitalize the control over integrity risks and the early warning mechanism.

- (II) In 2020, the respective ethics offices handled 99 cases of special audits tracked by AAC. Timely correction measures were prescribed soon after the defects were detected in the audits. Recommendations for preventive actions were also prescribed as a reference for the agencies. The audit findings indicated 55 treasury benefit cases and uncovered 1 case of unjustified enrichment and 32 cases of liability to administrative responsibilities by head count (including major demerit in 1 counts, demerit in 4 counts, reprimanding in 24 counts, and suspension from duty in 3 count). In addition, amendments to the applicable laws and operating procedures have also been conducted in 134 types.
