

Monthly Results of Administrative Corruption Investigation by Agency Against Corruption (AAC) of the Ministry of Justice (MOJ)

Data Period: August of 2023

To meet the public's expectations for anti-corruption work and increase trust in the government, the Agency Against Corruption (AAC), Ministry of Justice, directed government employee ethics units of different levels to take disciplinary actions against public servants who: are being investigated for illegal activities, have committed administrative violations, or have violated the Integrity and Ethics Direction for Public Servants for non-corruption crimes. The purpose of such efforts is to prevent corruption by ensuring public servants' legal awareness and compliance with the law.

For August of 2023, AAC handled in total 10 case of administrative corruption investigation, in terms of business categories there were 1 case of Transportation, Tourism & Weather, 1 case of Judicial, 2 cases of Civil Affairs, Household Registration, Military Service and Land Administration, 1 case Immigration and Coast Guard, 1 case of Environmental Protection, 1 cases of Education, 2 cases of Administrative Affairs, and 1 case of Others;

Officer Levels of the Staff Punished: 2 senior staff, 6 executive staff, 4 assistant staff, and 25 contract staff, with a total of 37 persons;

Punishment Results: Dismissal (including dismissal and suspension) to 1 person, adjustment of position to 1 person, demerits to 7 persons, reprimand to 26 persons, and written (oral) warning to 3 persons.