

Results of Administrative Corruption Investigation by Agency Against Corruption (AAC) of the Ministry of Justice (MOJ)

Data Period: 1st quarter of 2024

Jan. - Mar.

To meet the public's expectations for anti-corruption work and increase trust in the government, the Agency Against Corruption (AAC), Ministry of Justice, directed government employee ethics units of different levels to take disciplinary actions against public servants who: are being investigated for illegal activities, have committed administrative violations, or have violated the Integrity and Ethics Direction for Public Servants for non-corruption crimes. The purpose of such efforts is to prevent corruption by ensuring public servants' legal awareness and compliance with the law.

For 1st quarter of 2024, AAC handled in total 15 cases of administrative corruption investigation. Regarding the categories of offenses, there were 1 case of State-Owned Enterprises, 1 case of Construction, 1 case of Education, 1 case of Environmental Protection, 3 cases of Police Department, 1 case of Judicial Affairs, 6 cases of Administrative Affairs, and 1 case of Fire Department.

Official Ranks of the Staff Disciplined: 1 senior staff, 10 associate staff, 4 junior staff, and 3 contract and hired staff, with a total of 18 persons;

Disciplinary Punishment: Dismissal (including dismissal and suspension) to 4 persons, demerit to 10 persons, and reprimand to 4 persons.