

Results of Administrative Corruption Investigation by Agency Against Corruption (AAC) of the Ministry of Justice (MOJ)

Data Period: 2nd quarter of 2024

Apr. - Jun

To meet the public's expectations for anti-corruption work and increase trust in the government, the Agency Against Corruption (AAC), Ministry of Justice, directed government employee ethics units of different levels to take disciplinary actions against public servants who: are being investigated for illegal activities, have committed administrative violations, or have violated the Integrity and Ethics Direction for Public Servants for non-corruption crimes. The purpose of such efforts is to prevent corruption by ensuring public servants' legal awareness and compliance with the law.

For 2nd quarter of 2024, AAC handled in total 20 cases of administrative corruption investigation. Regarding the categories of offenses, there were 3 cases of Education, 2 cases of Environmental Protection, 1 case of Police Department, 3 cases of Legal Affairs, 2 cases of Civil Affairs, Household, Registration, Military Service and Land Administration, 4 cases of Administrative Affairs, 2 cases of Highway, Road and Motor Vehicles Supervision, 2 cases of Healthcare, and 1 case of Others.

Official Ranks of the Staff Disciplined: 5 senior staff, 13 associate staff, 5 junior staff, and 6 contract and hired staff, with a total of 29 persons;

Disciplinary Punishment: Dismissal (including dismissal and suspension) to 6 persons, demerit to 7 persons, reprimand to 13 persons, and Others to 3 persons.