

Results of Administrative Corruption

Investigation by Agency Against Corruption

(AAC) of the Ministry of Justice (MOJ)

Data Period: 3rd quarter of 2024

Jul. – Sep.

To meet the public's expectations for anti-corruption work and increase trust in the government, the Agency Against Corruption (AAC), Ministry of Justice, directed government employee ethics units of different levels to take disciplinary actions against public servants who: are being investigated for illegal activities, have committed administrative violations, or have violated the Integrity and Ethics Direction for Public Servants for non-corruption crimes. The purpose of such efforts is to prevent corruption by ensuring public servants' legal awareness and compliance with the law.

For 3rd quarter of 2024, AAC handled in total 18 cases of administrative corruption investigation. Regarding the categories of offenses, there were 1 case of Education, 3 cases of Environmental Protection, 3 cases of Police Department, 2 cases of Legal Affairs, 1 case of Civil Affairs, Household, Registration, Military Service and Land Administration, 4 cases of Administrative Affairs, 1 case of Highway, Road and Motor Vehicles Supervision, 1 case of Healthcare, 1 case of Customs Affairs , and 1 case of Judicial Affairs.

Official Ranks of the Staff Disciplined: 2 senior staff, 21 associate staff, 27 junior staff, and 10 contract and hired staff, with a total of 60 persons;

Disciplinary Punishment: Dismissal (including dismissal and suspension) to 9 persons, Adjustment of Position to 1 person, demerit to 11 persons, reprimand to 33 persons, and Others to 8 persons.