

Results of Administrative Corruption Investigation by Agency Against Corruption (AAC) of the Ministry of Justice (MOJ)

Data Period: May of 2025

To meet the public's expectations for anti-corruption work and increase trust in the government, the Agency Against Corruption (AAC), Ministry of Justice, directed government employee ethics units of different levels to take disciplinary actions against public servants who: are being investigated for illegal activities, have committed administrative violations, or have violated the Integrity and Ethics Direction for Public Servants for non-corruption crimes. The purpose of such efforts is to prevent corruption by ensuring public servants' legal awareness and compliance with the law.

For May of 2025, AAC handled in total 8 cases of administrative corruption investigation, in terms of business categories there were 2 cases of Healthcare, 2 cases of Environmental Protection, 1 case of Police Department, 1 case of Legal, 1 case of River and Gravel Management, and 1 case of Construction.

Officer Levels of the Staff Punished: 4 senior staffs, 7 executive staffs, 2 assistant staffs, and 6 contract and hired staffs, with a total of 19 persons;

Punishment Results: dismissal(including dismissal and suspension) to 4 persons, adjustment of position to 7 persons, demerits to 7 persons, reprimand to 2 persons.