

Results of Administrative Corruption

Investigation by Agency Against Corruption

(AAC) of the Ministry of Justice (MOJ)

Data Period: June of 2025

To meet the public's expectations for anti-corruption work and increase trust in the government, the Agency Against Corruption (AAC), Ministry of Justice, directed government employee ethics units of different levels to take disciplinary actions against public servants who: are being investigated for illegal activities, have committed administrative violations, or have violated the Integrity and Ethics Direction for Public Servants for non-corruption crimes. The purpose of such efforts is to prevent corruption by ensuring public servants' legal awareness and compliance with the law.

For June of 2025, AAC handled in total 9 cases of administrative corruption investigation, in terms of business categories there were 2 cases of Police Department, 1 case of Administrative Affairs, 2 cases of Civil Affairs, Household Registration, Military Service and Land Administration, 2 cases of Environmental Protection, 1 case of State-Owned Enterprises, 1 case of Agriculture, Forestry, Fishing and Animal Husbandry.

Officer Levels of the Staff Punished: 1 senior staff, 5 executive staff, 2 assistant staff, and 6 contract and hired staff, with a total of 14 persons;

Punishment Results: dismissal(including dismissal and suspension) to 1 person, adjustment of position to 2 persons, demerits to 7 persons, reprimand to 3 persons and others to 2 persons.