

Results of Administrative Corruption

Investigation by Agency Against Corruption

(AAC) of the Ministry of Justice (MOJ)

Data Period: July of 2025

To meet the public's expectations for anti-corruption work and increase trust in the government, the Agency Against Corruption (AAC), Ministry of Justice, directed government employee ethics units of different levels to take disciplinary actions against public servants who: are being investigated for illegal activities, have committed administrative violations, or have violated the Integrity and Ethics Direction for Public Servants for non-corruption crimes. The purpose of such efforts is to prevent corruption by ensuring public servants' legal awareness and compliance with the law.

For July of 2025, AAC handled in total 7 cases of administrative corruption investigation, in terms of business categories there were 1 cases of Legal, 1 case of Education, 1 case of Civil Affairs, Household Registration, Military Service and Land Administration, 1 case of State-Owned Enterprises, 1 case of River and Gravel Management, and 2 cases of Others.

Officer Levels of the Staff Punished: 1 senior staff, 5 executive staff, 6 assistant staff, and 1 contract and hired staff, with a total of 13 persons;

Punishment Results: dismissal (including dismissal and suspension) to 1 person, demerits to 6 persons, and reprimand to 6 persons.