

Results of Administrative Corruption Investigation by Agency Against Corruption (AAC) of the Ministry of Justice (MOJ)

Data Period: September of 2025

To meet the public's expectations for anti-corruption work and increase trust in the government, the Agency Against Corruption (AAC), Ministry of Justice, directed government employee ethics units of different levels to take disciplinary actions against public servants who: are being investigated for illegal activities, have committed administrative violations, or have violated the Integrity and Ethics Direction for Public Servants for non-corruption crimes. The purpose of such efforts is to prevent corruption by ensuring public servants' legal awareness and compliance with the law.

For September of 2025, AAC handled in total 10 cases of administrative corruption investigation, in terms of business categories there were 2 cases of Administrative Affairs, 2 cases of Police Department, 1 case of Legal, 1 case of Healthcare, 1 case of Environmental Protection, 1 case of State-Owned Enterprises, 1 case of Agriculture, Forestry, Fishing and Animal Husbandry, and 1 case of Others.

Officer Levels of the Staff Punished: 2 senior staff, 19 executive staff, 4 assistant staff, and 12 contract and hired staff, with a total of 37 persons;

Punishment Results: adjustment of position to 1 person, demerits to 13 persons, reprimand to 14 persons, and others to 15 persons.