

What are the responsibilities of the agency responsible for receiving whistleblowing reports?

Supervisor, head

Prosecutorial agencies

Judicial police agencies

Competent Authority

Control Yuan

Government
Employee Ethics
Unit

If you work at the agency responsible for receiving whistleblowing reports

You must issue an investigation notification to the whistleblower within 20 days after receiving the report

You must issue an investigation results notification to the whistleblower within 6 months after receiving the report

Where the agency receiving the report determines that it does not have jurisdiction, it must transfer the case to the agency with jurisdiction and notify the whistleblower

The contents of reports must be kept confidential

Civil servants who leak the identity of a whistleblower without a justifiable reason shall be punished with imprisonment for a term of no less than 6 months and no more than 5 years. In addition, a fine of up to NT$300,000 may be imposed

Civil servants who leak the identity of a whistleblower due to negligence shall be punished with imprisonment for a term of no more than 1 year, detention, and/or a fine of up to NT$100,000.

Non-civil servants who leak the identity of a whistleblower without a justifiable reason shall be punished with imprisonment for a term of no more than 1 year, detention, and/or a fine of up to NT$100,000

The identity of whistleblowers may not be disclosed without the consent of the whistleblower

You must investigate the whistleblowing case

You may require the whistleblower or the implicated enterprise, the agency (institution), or other related parties to provide supporting evidence and cooperate with the investigation

To preserve evidence, you may ask the court to seize items before judgment

Conduct investigations according to responsibilities and implement confidentiality measures.