

Results of Administrative Corruption

Investigation by Agency Against Corruption

(AAC) of the Ministry of Justice (MOJ)

Data Period: 3rd quarter of 2025

Jul. – Sep.

To meet the public's expectations for anti-corruption work and increase trust in the government, the Agency Against Corruption (AAC), Ministry of Justice, directed government employee ethics units of different levels to take disciplinary actions against public servants who: are being investigated for illegal activities, have committed administrative violations, or have violated the Integrity and Ethics Direction for Public Servants for non-corruption crimes. The purpose of such efforts is to prevent corruption by ensuring public servants' legal awareness and compliance with the law.

For 3rd quarter of 2025, AAC handled in total 22 cases of administrative corruption investigation. Regarding the categories of offenses, there were 2 cases of Legal Affairs, 1 case of Healthcare, 1 case of Education, 1 case of Industrial and Commercial Supervision, 3 cases of Police Department, 1 case of Environmental Protection, 1 case of River and Gravel Management, 5 cases of Administrative Affairs, 1 case of Civil Affairs, Household Registration, Military Service and Land Administration, 2 cases of State-Owned Enterprises, 1 case of Agriculture, Forestry, Fishing and Animal Husbandry, and 3 cases of Others.

Official Ranks of the Staff Disciplined: 3 senior staff, 27 associate staff, 11 junior staff, and 15 contract and hired staff, with a total of 56 persons;

Disciplinary Punishment: Dismissal (including dismissal and suspension) to 1 person, adjustment of position to 1 person, demerit to 20 persons, reprimand to 24 persons, and others to 16 persons.