

Results of Administrative Corruption

Investigation by Agency Against Corruption

(AAC) of the Ministry of Justice (MOJ)

Data Period: November of 2025

To meet the public's expectations for anti-corruption work and increase trust in the government, the Agency Against Corruption (AAC), Ministry of Justice, directed government employee ethics units of different levels to take disciplinary actions against public servants who: are being investigated for illegal activities, have committed administrative violations, or have violated the Integrity and Ethics Direction for Public Servants for non-corruption crimes. The purpose of such efforts is to prevent corruption by ensuring public servants' legal awareness and compliance with the law.

For November of 2025, AAC handled in total 9 cases of administrative corruption investigation, in terms of business categories there were 1 case of Environmental Protection, 1 case of Education, 1 case of Police Department, 1 case of Tax Affairs, 1 case of Agriculture, Forestry, Fishing and Animal Husbandry, 1 case of Legal, 1 case of Healthcare, and 2 cases of Others.

Officer Levels of the Staff Punished: 1 senior staff, 5 executive staff, 1 assistant staff, and 5 contract and hired staff, with a total of 12 persons;

Punishment Results: Dismissal(including dismissal and suspension) to 3 persons, adjustment of position to 1 person, demerits to 6 persons, reprimand to 3 persons, and others to 2 persons.