

Results of Administrative Corruption

Investigation by Agency Against Corruption

(AAC) of the Ministry of Justice (MOJ)

Data Period: 4th quarter of 2025

Oct. – Dec.

To meet the public's expectations for anti-corruption work and increase trust in the government, the Agency Against Corruption (AAC), Ministry of Justice, directed government employee ethics units of different levels to take disciplinary actions against public servants who: are being investigated for illegal activities, have committed administrative violations, or have violated the Integrity and Ethics Direction for Public Servants for non-corruption crimes. The purpose of such efforts is to prevent corruption by ensuring public servants' legal awareness and compliance with the law.

For 4th quarter of 2025, AAC handled in total 21 cases of administrative corruption investigation. Regarding the categories of offenses, there were 1 case of Legal Affairs, 1 case of Healthcare, 1 case of Education, 1 case of Construction, 4 cases of Police Department, 2 cases of Environmental Protection, 1 case of Social Welfare, 2 cases of Administrative Affairs, 1 case of Civil Affairs, Household Registration, Military Service and Land Administration, 1 case of Tax Affairs, 1 case of Highway, Road and Motor Vehicles Supervision, 2 cases of Agriculture, Forestry, Fishing and Animal Husbandry, and 3 cases of Others.

Official Ranks of the Staff Disciplined: 3 senior staff, 23 associate staff, 4 junior staff, and 11 contract and hired staff, with a total of 41 persons;

Disciplinary Punishment: Dismissal (including dismissal and suspension) to 4 persons, adjustment of position to 2 persons, demerit to 16 persons, reprimand to 15 persons, and others to 9 persons.