

Results of Administrative Corruption Investigation by Agency Against Corruption (AAC) of the Ministry of Justice (MOJ)

Data Period: 1st quarter of 2026

Jan. – Mar.

To meet the public's expectations for anti-corruption work and increase trust in the government, the Agency Against Corruption (AAC), Ministry of Justice, directed government employee ethics units of different levels to take disciplinary actions against public servants who: are being investigated for illegal activities, have committed administrative violations, or have violated the Integrity and Ethics Direction for Public Servants for non-corruption crimes. The purpose of such efforts is to prevent corruption by ensuring public servants' legal awareness and compliance with the law.

For 1st quarter of 2026, AAC handled in total 9 cases of administrative corruption investigation. Regarding the categories of offenses, there were 3 cases of Environmental Protection, 1 case of Industrial and Commercial Supervision, 1 case of Legal Affairs, 1 case of Civil Affairs, Household Registration, Military Service and Land Administration, 1 case of Administrative Affairs, 2 cases of Police Department.

Official Ranks of the Staff Disciplined: 1 senior staff, 8 associate staff, 3 junior staff, and 10 contract and hired staff, with a total of 22 persons;

Disciplinary Punishment: Adjustment of position to 2 persons, demerit to 15 persons, reprimand to 4 persons, and others to 7 persons.