

Results of Administrative Corruption

Investigation by Agency Against Corruption

(AAC) of the Ministry of Justice (MOJ)

Data Period: August of 2026

To meet the public's expectations for anti-corruption work and increase trust in the government, the Agency Against Corruption (AAC), Ministry of Justice, directed government employee ethics units of different levels to take disciplinary actions against public servants who: are being investigated for illegal activities, have committed administrative violations, or have violated the Integrity and Ethics Direction for Public Servants for non-corruption crimes. The purpose of such efforts is to prevent corruption by ensuring public servants' legal awareness and compliance with the law.

For August of 2026, AAC handled in total 7 cases of administrative corruption investigation, in terms of business categories there were 5 cases of Administrative Affairs, 1 case of Police Department, and 1 case of Civil Affairs, Household Registration, Military Service and Land Administration.

Officer Levels of the Staff Punished: 9 executive staff, 6 contract and hired staff, with a total of 15 persons;

Punishment Results: Adjustment of Position to 2 persons, demerits to 6 person, reprimand to 8 persons, others to 1 person.