

Agency Against Corruption, Ministry of Justice

Release Date: November 14, 2016

Released By: Southern Investigation Office

The Illegal Sale of Land and Bribery Scandal of Wang-An Township Office, Penghu County (Yonghe District) Investigated by the AAC has been Convicted by The Taiwan Penghu District Court.

In 2011, the county councilor of Penghu County Ye OO, along with his younger brother Ye OO, the Mayor of Wang-An Township, the Chief of Military Service Section Xu OO and the clerk Gao OO of Wang-An Township of Penghu County, illegally sold four pieces of the Township's land located in Baoping Section, Yonghe Dist., New Taipei City to contractors through finder Liao OO (The person in charge of OO land development company) under the name of "Urban Renewal" but truly on the basis of profit and bribery intentions.

The case was brought by the Southern Investigation Office of AAC to the Prosecutor's Office of the Penghu District Court of Taiwan for investigation and was then sentenced by the Taiwan Penghu District Court on October 14, 2016 in accordance with regulations regarding bribes and acts that violate official duties specified in the Anti-Corruption Act. The sentence is as follows: 12 years and 6 months fixed-term imprisonment along with 8 years of civil rights deprivation for the former county councilor of Penghu County Ye OO; 10 years fixed-term imprisonment along with 6 years of civil rights deprivation for the former Chief of Military Service Section Xu OO; 11 years fixed-term imprisonment along with 7 years of civil rights deprivation for the former clerk Gao OO; 8 years fixed-term imprisonment along with 5 years of civil rights deprivation for finder Liao OO; 8 years fixed-term imprisonment along with 5 years of civil rights deprivation for the former Mayor of Wang-An Township Ye OO.