

Results of Administrative Corruption Investigation by Agency Against Corruption (AAC) of the Ministry of Justice (MOJ)

Data Period: 4th quarter of 2024

Oct. – Dec.

To meet the public's expectations for anti-corruption work and increase trust in the government, the Agency Against Corruption (AAC), Ministry of Justice, directed government employee ethics units of different levels to take disciplinary actions against public servants who: are being investigated for illegal activities, have committed administrative violations, or have violated the Integrity and Ethics Direction for Public Servants for non-corruption crimes. The purpose of such efforts is to prevent corruption by ensuring public servants' legal awareness and compliance with the law.

For 4th quarter of 2024, AAC handled in total 23 cases of administrative corruption investigation. Regarding the categories of offenses, there were 5 cases of Administrative Affairs, 2 cases of State-Owned Enterprises, 2 cases of Legal Affairs, 3 cases of Police Department, 1 case of Agriculture, Forestry, Fishing and Animal Husbandry, 1 case of Highway, Road and Motor Vehicles Supervision, 2 cases of Others, and 1 case of Military Affairs.

Official Ranks of the Staff Disciplined: 2 senior staff, 25 associate staff, 8 junior staff, and 4 contract and hired staff, with a total of 39 persons;

Disciplinary Punishment: Dismissal (including dismissal and suspension) to 2 persons, Adjustment of Position to 2 person, demerit to 20 persons, reprimand to 8 persons, and Others to 7 persons.