

Results of Administrative Corruption

Investigation by Agency Against Corruption

(AAC) of the Ministry of Justice (MOJ)

Data Period: 1st quarter of 2025

Jan. – Mar.

To meet the public's expectations for anti-corruption work and increase trust in the government, the Agency Against Corruption (AAC), Ministry of Justice, directed government employee ethics units of different levels to take disciplinary actions against public servants who: are being investigated for illegal activities, have committed administrative violations, or have violated the Integrity and Ethics Direction for Public Servants for non-corruption crimes. The purpose of such efforts is to prevent corruption by ensuring public servants' legal awareness and compliance with the law.

For 1st quarter of 2025, AAC handled in total 16 cases of administrative corruption investigation. Regarding the categories of offenses, there were 2 cases of Civil Affairs, Household, Registration, Military Service and Administration, 2 cases of Administrative Affairs, 6 cases of Police Department, 2 cases of Immigration and Coast Guard, 1 case of Environmental Protection, 1 case of Healthcare, and 2 cases of Others.

Official Ranks of the Staff Disciplined: 17 associate staff, 10 junior staff, and 4 contract and hired staff, with a total of 31 persons;

Disciplinary Punishment: Dismissal (including dismissal and suspension) to 4 persons, Adjustment of Position to 2 persons, demerit to 24 persons, and reprimand to 2 persons.